

Tools and tactics for improving crop establishment – Managing risk in early sowing and variable rainfall

This will be held following the Hart Field-Site Group's Getting the Crop in seminar.

11 MARCH 2026 | 12.30pm (for lunch) for a 1.30pm start - 4.30pm

Join us for an engaging interactive session to discuss the tools and tactics for crop establishment 2026.

It's an opportunity to reflect on the learnings of the past season and to delve into the complexities of seeding in 2026.

This forum aims to support informed farmer decision-making for seeding in 2026 by bringing together farmers, agronomists, and researchers to discuss crop establishment challenges in the Mid North of South Australia.

This forum will provide an opportunity to openly explore these challenges, build shared understanding, and strengthen confidence in establishment decisions for 2026 and beyond.

Hear from:

- Peter Hayman – SARDI Climate Applications
- Glenn McDonald – Adelaide University
- Jeff Braun – The Agronomist
- Royce Pitchford – Pinion Advisory
