

Improving
climate risky
decision making

August 2
2022

9am - 12pm

Blyth Town Hall

with

Peter Hayman, Climate Applications Scientist, SARDI
Barry Mudge, Low Rainfall Farmer & Consultant

Explore NEW climate forecast products and more importantly, how we can use them to make better on-farm decisions

More info & to register
www.hartfieldsite.org.au

Improving
climate risky
decision
making

SA
DROUGHT
HUB

August 2, 2022 | 9am - 12pm
Blyth Town Hall

Short term weather forecasts

interpreting the BoM chance of rainfall

Weather apps

Understanding climate drivers

historical information with a focus on local data

Using weather & climate data for on-farm decision making

operational (<7 days)

tactical (1-6 months)

strategic (years - decades)

Super computers

what's new and what can they tell us?

Climate change

what are the predictions?

Bring a laptop or tablet to participate in workshop exercises tailored to your location